Genesis 3. The Fall of Man

The First Sin and Its Judgment

ne		Date Assigned:
The	Suc	cessful Overthrow of the Human Race. 3:1-7
1.	A sł	nrewd serpent approached the woman. What did he ask her? 3:1
2.	Hov	v did the woman reply? 3:2-3
3.	The	snake contradicted the woman. What did he say?
	a.	You will not 3:4
	b.	You will be like, knowing and! 3:5
4.	Wha	at did the woman observe? The tree was 3:6
	a.	Good for
	b.	Pleasing to the
	C.	Desirable for gaining
5.	Sov	what did she do? 3:6
	a.
	b.	and he also
6.	Wha	at happened immediately? Their eyes were opened 3:7
	a.	What did they know?
	b.	What did they do to compensate?
		ives and Starts Asking Questions. Consequences for the Serpent, for nan, and for the Man. 3:8-21
1.	Wha	at did the couple hear? 3:8
	1. 2. 3. 4. God the	1. A sh 2. How 3. The a. b. 4. Wha a. b. c. 5. So w a. b. 6. Wha a. b. God Arrithe Work

2.	Wh	at did they do? 3:8b
3.		This is a MAJOR Consequence of sin. We call this DEATH. Death occurs 3 levels. All death involves separation.
	a.	Spiritual Death: Man is separated from (Gen. 3:8)
	b.	Physical Death: Man's is separated from his (Gen. 5:1-5).
	C.	Second Death: Man is separated from God forever in theof (Rev. 20:11-15)
4.	Wh	at did God ask? 3:9
5.	Wh	at did the man respond? 3:10
6.	Wh	at did God ask the man next? 3:11
	a.
	b.	·
7.	Wh	om did the man blame? 3:12
8.	Wh	om did the woman blame? 3:13
9.	This is a good lesson. People who sin against God typically like to blame for their sin. We don't like to accept for our own sin.
10.	God	d's curse upon the snake: 3:14-15
	a.	The serpent is cursed more than all 3:14
	b.	It will crawl on its
	C.	It will eat all its life.
	d.	God would put enmity between the and the 3:15
	e.	God would put enmity between the offspring of the and the offspring of the

g. The snake would bruise the offspring of the woman on the (This would be painful, but not mortal.) 11. God's curse upon the woman. 3:16 a. He would give her pain in b. She would always have a desire for her c. Her husband would over her. 12. God's curse upon the man. 3:17–19 a. The is cursed. 3:17 b. The ground will produce and 3:18 c. Man would have to work hard by the of his brow to get enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) and also a 3:24		f.	The offspring of the woman would bruise the snake on the (This would be a mortal wound.) 3:15
a. He would give her pain in		g.
b. She would always have a desire for her c. Her husband would over her. 12. God's curse upon the man. 3:17–19 a. The is cursed. 3:17 b. The ground will produce and 3:18 c. Man would have to work hard by the of his brow to get enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels)	11.	God	God's curse upon the woman. 3:16
c. Her husband would over her. 12. God's curse upon the man. 3:17–19 a. The is cursed. 3:17 b. The ground will produce and 3:18 c. Man would have to work hard by the of his brow to get enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels)		a.	He would give her pain in
 a. The is cursed. 3:17 b. The ground will produce and 3:18 c. Man would have to work hard by the of his brow to get enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 		b.	She would always have a desire for her
a. The is cursed. 3:17 b. The ground will produce and 3:18 c. Man would have to work hard by the of his brow to get enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels)		C.	Her husband would over her.
 b. The ground will produce and 3:18 c. Man would have to work hard by the of his brow to get enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 	12.	God	3's curse upon the man. 3:17–19
 c. Man would have to work hard by the of his brow to get enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 		a.	The is cursed. 3:17
enough food. 3:19 d. He would eventually return to the from which he had been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels)		b.	The ground will produce and 3:18
been made. 13. Adam named his wife because she would become the mother of all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels)		C.
 all the living. 3:20 14. What does this do to the theory of evolution? God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 1. How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 2. God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 		d.
 God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 	13.
 How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21 God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 	14.	What does this do to the theory of evolution?
 God was concerned that Adam and Eve would now eat from the tree of life and live forever. 3:22 So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 	God Protects the First Humans. 3:21-24 and live forever. 3:22 3. So what did God do to the couple? 3:23 4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels) 	1.	How did God provide for coverings for Adam and Eve? 3:21
4. To guard the way to the tree of life, God posted cherubim (special angels)	2.
	3.	So what did God do to the couple? 3:23
	4.

D. What have been some of the consequences of sin?

C.