 - H2 His service to God
 - G2 The high priest
 - H1 Entrance into the Holy of Holies only annually
 - H2 Entrance only with blood
 - I1 Offered for himself
 - I2 Offered for the people
 - F2 The significance of the ritual 9:8-10
 - G1 The significance is by Divine design 9:8a
 - G2 Access to the Holy of Holies had then not yet been revealed 9:8b
 - G3 The tabernacle system prefigured the present situation 9:9-10
 - H1 The sacrifices could not perfect 9:9
 - H2 The components of the ritual 9:10a
 - I1 Meats
 - I2 Drinks
 - I3 Dippings
 - I4 Fleshly rules
 - H3 The purpose of the ritual -- to be used only until God would make all things good 9:10b

- D3 The Son's sacrifice as the foundation for the new covenant 9:11-28
 - E1 The Son as a high priest was His own sacrifice 9:11-15
 - F1 The realm of His high priesthood 9:11
 - G1 He became high priest of good things to come
 - G2 He was a greater tabernacle
 - H1 Not made by humans
 - H2 Not part of this world
 - F2 The nature of His sacrifice 9:12
 - G1 The type of blood
 - H1 Not animal
 - H2 But His own
 - G2 His entrance into the Holy of Holies
 - F3 The efficacy of His sacrifice 9:13-14a
 - G1 The stop-gap adequacy of animal sacrifice 9:13
 - H1 The substances used
 - I1 The blood of bulls
 - I1 The blood of goats
 - I3 The sprinkled ashes of a heifer
 - H2 The result obtained: sanctification to the purifying of the flesh

- G2 The superior worth of the Son's sacrifice 9:14a
 - H1 He used His own blood
 - H2 He offered Himself to God
 - I1 Through the Spirit
 - I2 Without spot
- F4 The results of His sacrifice 9:14b-15
 - G1 It can purge men's consciences 9:14b
 - H1 From dead works
 - H2 To serve the living God
 - G2 He became the basis for the new covenant 9:15
 - H1 Because His death paid for sins committed under the old covenant
 - H2 So that the elect can receive an eternal inheritance
- E2 The Son's death was needed to put the new covenant into effect 9:16-22
 - F1 The universal principle: A covenant (or will) requires the death of the covenant-maker 9:16-17
 - G1 The statement of the principle 9:16
 - G2 The reason for the principle 9:17
 - H1 The covenant goes into effect upon the death of its maker
 - H2 The covenant is ineffectual while the maker still lives

- F2 The old covenant was effected by death through bloodshed 9:18-22
 - G1 The old covenant never operated without bloodshed 9:18-21
 - H1 Moses' pronouncement of the Law 9:19a
 - H2 The sprinkling of the blood 9:19b
 - I1 The use of the blood of calves and goats
 - I2 The use of water, scarlet wool, and hyssop
 - I3 All were sprinkled on the tablet and the people
 - H3 Moses' declaration: The blood of the covenant God made with you 9:20
 - H4 The further sprinkling of blood 9:21
 - I1 On the tabernacle
 - I2 On the vessels
 - G2 The importance of bloodshed 9:22
 - H1 Most things are purified by bloodshed
 - H2 There is no forgiveness without bloodshed

- F3 So also the new covenant was effected by the Son's superior death 9:23-28
 - G1 A contrast of the two covenants 9:23
 - H1 The figures of the realities were rightfully purified by an inferior sacrifice under the old covenant
 - H2 The realities were rightfully purified by a superior sacrifice under the new covenant
 - G2 The Son's superior place of sacrifice 9:24
 - H1 He entered not into the Holy of Holies, which is only a figure of the reality
 - H2 He entered into very heaven itself
 - I1 There to appear before God
 - I2 There appearing on our behalf
 - G3 The superior sufficiency of the Son's sacrifice 9:25-28
 - H1 No need for multiple sacrifices 9:25-26a
 - I1 In contrast with that of the annual sacrifices of the high priest 9:25
 - I2 Otherwise He would have suffered from creation on 9:26a

- H2 One sacrifice is adequate 9:26b-28
 - I1 The Son appeared only once 9:26b
 - J1 In the end of the age
 - J2 To take away sin by sacrificing Himself
 - I2 The universal principle: men die only once 9:27
 - J1 Men are appointed one death
 - J2 Afterwards comes judgment
 - I3 The Son's death meets all the requirements to sacrifice for the sins of many 9:28a
 - I4 Additional: The Son will appear again 9:28b
 - J1 Unto those watching for Him
 - J2 Sinless
 - J3 Securing final salvation

C6 The Inaugurator of a Better Sacrifice 10:1-18

D1 With regard to the effectiveness of actually atoning for sins 10:1-10

E1 The ineffectiveness of sacrifices under the Law 10:1-4

F1 The nature of the Law 10:1a

G1 Only a shadow of the good things that are future

G2 Not the essence of the good things that are future

F2 The inability of the sacrifices under the Law 10:1b-4

G1 They were offered annually 10:1b

G2 They could never sanctify the people

G3 They were ongoing 10:2

H1 Effectiveness would have required their cessation 10:2a

H2 Effectiveness would have cleared guilty consciences

G4 Rather than clearing consciences, they annually reminded people of their continuing sin! 10:3

F3 The impossibility that animal blood can remove human sin! 10:4

- E2 The effectiveness of the sacrifice of the Son's body 10:5-10
 - F1 The proof from Scripture 10:5-9
 - G1 The nature of the Scriptural statement 10:5a
 - H1 Made by the Son
 - H2 Made before His incarnation
 - G2 The nature of the Scriptural statement 10:5b-7
 - H1 The desire of God 10:5b-6
 - I1 Not for animal sacrifices
 - I2 But the human body of the Son
 - I3 Animal sacrifices for sin bring no pleasure 10:6
 - H2 The submission of the Son 10:7
 - I1 His desire to obey God
 - I2 His willingness documented in Scripture
 - G3 The explanation of the statement 10:8-9
 - H1 What God did not desire 10:8a
 - I1 Sacrifice
 - I2 Offering
 - I3 Burnt offering
 - I4 Offering for sin
 - H2 God's disapproval not quenched, in spite of their lawfulness 10:8b

- H3 The Son's statement: He comes to do God's will 10:9a
- H4 The implication 10:9b
 - I1 God took away animal sacrifices
 - I2 In so doing God established the Son's sacrifice
- F2 The final conclusion 10:10
 - G1 Our sins can be remitted
 - G2 Remission comes through the offering of a human body
 - H1 The body of the Son
 - H2 The body offered once for all
- D2 With regard to effectiveness in view of the number of offerings 10:11-14
 - E1 The priests' many offerings under the Law 10:11
 - F1 Their posture: standing while ministering
 - F2 Their repetitious, daily offerings
 - F3 The inability of their offerings to remit sins
 - E2 The Son's one offering under the New Covenant 10:12-18
 - F1 The eternal sufficiency of His sacrifice 10:12a
 - F2 His posture after His sacrifice: Sitting after having completed ministry 10:12b-13
 - G1 His place of honor: Seated on God's right hand 10:12b
 - G2 His expectation: The final subordination of His foes 10:13

- F3 The efficacy of His sacrifice 10:14-18
 - G1 The need for only one 10:14a
 - G2 Its sufficiency to perfect people 10:14b
 - H1 The duration of perfection: forever
 - H2 The target of perfection: Those who are set apart

- D3 With regard to effectiveness in view of the commitment written in Scripture 10:15-18
 - E1 The credibility of the commitment in Scripture: Offered by the Holy Spirit Himself 10:15
 - E2 The explanation of the commitment 10:16-17
 - F1 The nature of the commitment: A new covenant 10:16a
 - F2 The fulfillment of the commitment: "After those days"
 - F3 The signatory of the commitment: Yahweh
 - F4 The content of the commitment 10:16b-17
 - G1 Motivation: Yahweh to write His laws on their heart and mind 10:16b
 - G2 Acquittal: "And their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more." 10:17
 - E3 The results of the forgiveness promised in the commitment 10:18
 - F1 The existence of forgiveness
 - F2 The consequent obsolescence of offering
