¹ Psalm 134 Superscription: Song of Ascents: See note on Psalm 120 for discussion. This psalm constitutes a fitting benediction to the Songs of Ascents (120-134). The setting for this delightful hymn is evening, and the departing worshipers hail the priests and Levites standing in the house of Yahweh to bless Him throughout the night. In turn, the gathered priests and Levites offer a farewell blessing upon the departing worshipers that Yahweh, the Creator of both heavens and earth, might bless them from Zion, the earthly home in which He condescends to dwell. It is a fond, worshipful, benedictory farewell.
