<sup>1</sup> Title: This prayer for international blessing of Elohim will be answered temporarily in the Millennial Kingdom, and perfectly in the Eternal State, in which the New Jerusalem will serve as the Capital of the New Heavens and Earth.

<sup>2</sup> 67:2 - all nations (1471 - pl, goyim): That the psalmist intends universal praise of Elohim is demonstrated first by his use of the term nations, second, by his use of the word all, and third, by his use of three different words. In 67:3 he uses the term peoples (5971 - pl, amim), and in 67:4, the seldom-used term nations (3816 - leh-omim). In the KJV, goyim is most often translated nations, then heathen, where an ethical context is present. In the NASB ('95), goyim is almost universally translated nations. Fourth, the call for the peoples / nations to praise Elohim is repeated in the Psalm. Finally, fifth, in 67:7, Elohim's blessing of Israel is a reason for all the ends of the earth to fear Him!

C2 His Guidance of Earth's Nations: And guide the nations on the earth.
Selah.

<sup>3</sup> 37:6 - yielded, blesses. The fact that the earth has yielded its produce is offered as a proof that Elohim has blessed Israel! Yielded is a background (perfect) verb supporting the action of the main (imperfect) verb, blesses.
