A1 THE PSALMIST'S CONTEMPLATION OF HELP AS HE JOURNEYS TO JERUSALEM: Yahweh, the Creator, Is My Help 121:1-2

B1 Though Mountains Are the Most Prominent Feature En Route to Jerusalem, Is That My Source of Help? 121:1

C1 The Prominence of the Mountains: {1} I² will lift up my eyes to the mountains;³

C2 The Source of Help? From whence shall my help come?

B2 The Affirmation that Help Springs from Yahweh, the Creator of Heavens and Earth 121:2

C1 Help Comes from Yahweh: {2} My help comes from the LORD,

C2 Only the Creator is Adequate to Provide Help! Who made heaven and earth.

¹ Superscription - Song of Ascents: See footnote on Psalm 120.

² 121:1 - I: The first two verses are first person singular.

³ 121:1 - mountains: En route to worship in Jerusalem, the traveler's attention would focus on the mountains, to which he would need to ascend.

A2 THE COMPANION'S EXPOSITION ON HELP AS HE TRAVELS ALONGSIDE:
Yahweh, Ever Alert, is Israel's Protector 121:3-8

B1 Yahweh, Your Protector, Never Slumbers 121:3-4

C1 {3} He will not allow your ⁴ foot to slip;

C2 He who keeps ⁵ you will not slumber.

C3 {4} Behold, He who keeps Israel

C4 Will neither slumber nor sleep.

B2 Yahweh, Your Protector, Shields from Harm Always 121:5-6

C1 The Affirmation of Yahweh as Guardian {5} The LORD is your keeper;

C2 The Quality of Yahweh's Shade: The LORD is your shade on your right hand.

C3 The Timelessness of Yahweh's Shade 121:6

D1 Sufficiency by day: {6} The sun will not smite you by day,

D2 Sufficiency by night: Nor the moon by night.

⁴ 121:3-8 - your: The pronouns are second person singular. Evidently the companion or the companions of the psalmist are reaffirming Yahweh's guardianship and protection in an antiphonal chorus, addressing the singular psalmist. Less likely, the psalmist addresses his companion, or else he addresses the group traveling with him, but speaks to each one individually in a teaching mode.

⁵ 121:3 - keeps: "Keeps" here translates the Heb. shamar (8104). Six times in this brief psalm shamar is used, translated "keeper" in v. 5, "protect" in v. 7, and "guard" in v. 8. The first three uses of this word in the Bible are instructive: Man was placed in the garden of Eden both to cultivate it and to preserve it (Gen. 2:15). After man's sin and expulsion from the garden, Yahweh Elohim placed cherubim and a flaming sword at the east of the garden to guard so man could never again eat of the tree of life and be cursed with a body that would age but never expire (Gen. 3:24). After he had killed his brother, and Yahweh asked him where Abel was, Cain flippantly asked in response, "Am I my brother's guardian?" (Gen. 4:9). Yahweh, on the other hand is the careful guardian, protector of Israel. I have highlighted the corresponding Biblical text in this analysis to alert the reader of the repetition of shamar.

B3 Yahweh Will Protect You From All Evil All the Time! 121:7-8

C1 Yahweh's Protection of Your Soul from Evil

D1 {7} The LORD will protect you from all evil;

D2 He will keep your soul.

C2 Yahweh's Eternal Protection of Your Movements

D1 {8} The LORD will guard your going out and your coming in

D2 From this time forth and forever.
